

2022 WWG Writing Prompts

January 8: Pick one (or more) of the following:

- *Starry Night
- *Winter Sundays
- *Home Blue
- *Missing You

(These prompts coincide with the themes for the ACCC Winter Celebration on January 27th! See our Events page for more details about this event!)

February 5: Forgotten Spaces, Forgotten Things (aka, “write about something you found in your junk drawer/closet/forgotten space”)

March 5: Write about something you used to do when you were young, that you won’t ever do again.

April 2: If you could do anything today (within your current financial situation/living circumstances) without fear, what would you do?

May 7: Write a letter to your nemesis (human or nonhuman).

June 4: It's a free write! Share what writerly wordage has inspired you over the last month.

July 9: Pick one (or more) of the following word prompts:

- *Farewell
- *The Meadow
- *Someday

2022 WWG Writing Prompts

*Forever

(These prompts coincide with the themes for "August Inspirations": an ACCC-sponsored musician/writer collaboration event on August 4th! See our Events page for more details about this event!)

August 6: Write about an unexpected package.

September 10: Write about The Storm, in whatever form that takes. The storm outside, or the storm within? Thunder, dust, snow, or fire? Terrifying, or rejuvenating? Use all your senses.

October 1: Something Wicked (in honor of the ACCC Literary Committee-sponsored event on October 13, AND in honor of All Hallows' Eve and Spooky Season)! To celebrate the eerie, mysterious, and macabre, write a piece with a horror or supernatural theme.

November 5: Write about an unforeseen event in your life, or an event that had an unexpected outcome. What was a surprise? Was it good or bad? What were the consequences (if any)?

December 3: Pick a historical figure, and write their resume.
