

2023 WWG Writing Prompts

February: Free write!

March: What happens next?

...In the story you're writing (bring the next chapter/scene next time).

...In the story of your life (as a prompt).

... Or in any other direction you take this prompt!

April: The First Breath of Spring: Words and Music, using these prompts:

Tenderness (towards another, towards the earth etc.)

Mirrors (to the world, to the self, of feelings, etc.)

Home (real, imaginary, positive, frightening, etc.)

Heart (metaphoric or real, feelings, hopes, etc.)

Loss (people, objects, time, etc.)

May: Write about a formative core memory.

June: What does the future bring, hold, have in store?

August: Incorporate one of the following into a piece:

Love-in-the-mist

Devil-in-a-bush

Ghost pipe

Angels Fishing Rod

Strawberry Hedgehog

Fire stick

Living stone

September: See August prompt

October: Spooky Stories!

November: National Novel Writing Month